MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]
SUBJECT: Your Assignment at Headquarters

25X1A6a
1. You will recall during my visit to [REDACTED] that we talked about your next assignment here at headquarters. I am writing this note both to confirm what I said at that time and to add a little precision to what I was then unable to tell you.

2. If you remember I mentioned that we were hoping you would agree to an assignment in the Fuels and Power Branch of the Materials Division in a supervisory capacity, but at that time I was perforce a little uncertain about the exact nature of your assignment. Since returning home, I find that [REDACTED] have gone further with their planning and propose to assign if you agree as Deputy Branch Chief. They feel and I agree that you can make an important contribution to the smooth and effective functioning of this Branch in the deputy's position.

3. I have advised those concerned that in light of your remarks to me in [REDACTED] I felt that you would welcome this opportunity and that you would be happy to lend a hand in the difficult tasks that lie ahead. I hope that this is the case and that the inference that I drew from our conversations was correct.

4. Best wishes. We are all looking forward to your return.
